1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 The Code of Behaviour (Underage) is a joint code of good practice in accordance with Rule published by:-
- 1.1.1 The Gaelic Athletic Association (“the GAA”);
 - 1.1.2 Ladies Gaelic Football Association (“the LGFA”);
 - 1.1.3 The Camogie Association;
 - 1.1.4 GAA Handball Ireland;
 - 1.1.5 Rounders Council of Ireland.
(collectively “the Associations”)
- 1.2 The Code of Behaviour (Underage) outlines the standards of practice required of those participating in underage games and activities, regardless of what role they may play and in doing so, brings together the collective good practice experiences of our Associations while also recognising the legislative, organisational and statutory guidance that governs our work with young people and children.
- 1.3 Our Associations are committed to creating and maintaining a safe and enjoyable environment for all young people and children who participate in our games and other activities. In upholding this principle, our Associations will continue to abide by and integrate child welfare legislation and statutory guidance into our work in all jurisdictions in which we operate.
- 1.4 The welfare of the child shall always be our paramount consideration, whether it is on the playing fields, in the training of our underage players, in the recruitment of our coaches or the many other developmental and social opportunities that we offer our underage players on a regular basis.
- 1.5 The promotion and implementation of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) is everybody’s responsibility.
- 1.6 Unfortunately, breaches of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) may occur from time to time, some of which may be minor breaches and some of which may be major breaches. Breaches may happen for a number of reasons including, but not limited to, carelessness, poor practice, and a lack of understanding or there may be, in some instances, deliberate or calculated breaches of the Code of Behaviour (Underage).
- 1.7 This document, Dealing with Alleged Breaches of the Code of Behaviour (Underage), forms part of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) and sets out the procedures to be followed in the event of alleged breach of the Code of Behaviour (Underage), the level of disciplinary procedures that may be applied following a breach and the sanctions that may be imposed for breaches of the Code of Behaviour (Underage).

2. GENERAL PROVISIONS FOR DEALING WITH AN ALLEGED BREACH OF THE CODE OF BEHAVIOUR (UNDERAGE)

2.1 Status

- 2.1.1. Breaches of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) may also be a breach of the rules of the relevant Association.
- 2.1.2. In circumstances where an allegation could constitute a breach of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) or a breach of rule, it shall be dealt with under the rules of the relevant Association and the disciplinary procedure contained in the rules, unless it is determined, in accordance with paragraph 5.1.6 below, that the allegation should be dealt with under the provisions of the Code of Behaviour (Underage).
- 2.1.3. Members of the GAA, LGFA, Camogie, Rounders and Handball Associations are obliged to cooperate with the informal or formal procedures for Dealing with Alleged Breach of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) as outlined in section 3-5 below. Any failure to do so shall be dealt with in accordance with the disciplinary procedures of the relevant Association's rules.

2.2 False Allegations

- 2.2.1 Any member found to have made a false or vexatious allegation shall be dealt with in accordance with the disciplinary procedures in the relevant Association's rules.

2.3 Allegations of Abuse

- 2.3.1 Allegations of abuse shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Guidance for Dealing with and Reporting Allegations or Concerns of Abuse, and not under the provisions below.

2.4 Role of Children's Officer

- 2.4.1 The Children's Officer at Club, County, Provincial and National levels shall have a central role to play in promoting and implementing the Code of Behaviour (Underage). The Children's Officer may be called upon to facilitate a Code Hearings Committee although not in membership of that Committee or may (see Section 4 of this document) deal with an alleged breach of the Code in an informal manner.
- 2.4.2 Due to their role(s) it is not permitted for a Children's Officer to be in membership of any Committee, at Club, County, Provincial or National level dealing directly with an alleged breach of the Code that has arisen within their County. Should such an alleged breach be discussed at any Committee, to which the Children's Officer is a member, they must absent themselves from the meeting while the matter is being discussed.

3. REPORTING AN ALLEGED BREACH OF THE CODE OF BEHAVIOUR (UNDERAGE)

3.1 An allegation of a breach of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) may be made by any person or persons (“the Complainant”) to one of the following as appropriate in the circumstances:-

- 3.1.6 The Secretary of the Child Safeguarding Committee

3.2 While an allegation of an alleged breach of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) may initially be made verbally or in writing it must be submitted in writing by a complainant so as to enable it to be processed formally and should include the following information:

- 3.2.1 The complaint must contain the time, date, venue and provision of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) that has been allegedly breached, the identity and names of any person(s) allegedly involved and the name(s) of person(s) who may have witnessed the alleged breach. The complaint must contain the name and contact details of the complainant.

3.3 Any failure to provide the information outlined at clause 3.2.1 above shall not invalidate an allegation.

3.4 Anonymous complaints can be difficult to deal with, however they cannot be ignored. All such complaints relating to inappropriate behaviour/poor practice should, in accordance with section 3.1, be brought to the attention of the relevant person and assessed for processing if possible.

4. INFORMAL PROCEDURES FOR DEALING WITH ALLEGED BREACHES OF THE CODE OF BEHAVIOUR (UNDERAGE)

- 4.1 It is acknowledged that certain breaches of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) that occur at Club, County or National level may be instances of poor practice which may appropriately be dealt with in an informal manner.

- 4.3 Where the Children's Officer is of the view that the allegation is serious (because of the gravity of the allegation or for some other reason) he/she shall refer the allegation to the Secretary of the Club Executive Committee, the Secretary of the County Committee or the Secretary of the Child Safeguarding Committee as appropriate to be dealt with in accordance with the formal procedure set out at clause 5 below.
- 4.4 Where the Children's Officer is of the view that the allegation of a breach of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) may be appropriately dealt with in an informal manner, he/she shall be responsible for dealing with the alleged breach informally and agreeing the procedure to be followed with the parties. This could involve meeting with the person(s) against whom an allegation has been made and resolving the matter amicably and by agreement.
- 4.5 If an alleged breach of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) is resolved informally, the Club, County or National Children's Officer will note the outcome in writing.
- 4.6 In the event that either party to the allegation objects to the allegation being dealt with informally, the Club, County or National Children's Officer shall refer the allegation to the Secretary of the Club Executive Committee, the Secretary of the County Committee or the Secretary of the Child Safeguarding Committee as appropriate to be dealt with in accordance with the formal procedure set out at clause 5 below.
- 4.7 In the event that:-
- 4.7.1 It is not possible to resolve the issue, the subject matter of the allegation, in an informal manner the Club, County or National Children's Officer shall refer the allegation to the Secretary of the Club Executive Committee, the Secretary of the County Committee or the Secretary of the Child Safeguarding Committee as appropriate in the circumstances; or

In its appointment of the Determining Committee, the County Committee shall seek to appoint a nominee of the relevant County Committee of each of the LGFA, the Camogie Association and the GAA to the Determining Committee. Any allegation of failure to appoint nominees of any of the Associations shall not undermine the validity of the Determining Committee as appointed or its decisions.
- The Determining Committee shall be responsible for initial consideration and investigation of any allegation made.
 - The GAA, LGFA and Camogie County Committees shall each ratify the membership of the Code of Behaviour (Underage) County Determining Committee.
- 5.1.4 The Child Safeguarding Committee shall appoint a Child Safeguarding Code of Behaviour (Underage) Hearings Committee to investigate and consider allegations at Provincial and National level and may also investigate and consider allegations at Club and County level as are referred to it.
- 5.1.5 If any member of the relevant committee is conflicted in relation to an allegation, that member shall notify the members of the relevant committee and shall not be involved in investigating or considering the allegation.

- 5.2.1 Provided that the allegation is to be dealt with under the Code of Behaviour (Underage), the relevant committee (see 5.1.2/5.1.3/5.1.4) may investigate any allegation that has come to its attention as it considers appropriate.
- 5.2.2 Where the relevant committee (see 5.1.2/5.1.3/5.1.4) deems it necessary to conduct an investigation, it may carry out the investigation or delegate the investigation to one or more of its members as it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

- 5.2.4 If the Respondent is under 18 years of age, meetings or interviews should not take place with the Respondent without the presence of his or her parent or guardian, unless the Respondent's parents or guardians have been notified of the allegation and invited to attend the meeting or interview but have refused to do so. In circumstances where the Respondent's parents or guardian refuse to accompany him or her to a meeting or interview, the Respondent shall be entitled to be accompanied to the meeting or interview by an adult of his/her choosing. If the Respondent chooses not to be accompanied to the meeting by an adult, the meeting or interview may proceed.
- 5.2.5 If a witness is under 18 years of age, meetings or interviews should not take place with the witness without the presence of his or her parent or guardian or of a nominated adult on behalf of the parent/guardian, unless their parent(s) or guardian(s) have been notified of the meetings or interview and invited to attend and have refused to do so. - 5.6.3 In appointing the Club Code Hearings Committee, the Club Executive Committee will have regard to the extent of integration of the Associations in the particular Club (if any) in selecting the Hearings Committee.
- 5.6.4 Any allegation of failure to comply with the obligation to have regard to the extent of integration of the Associations in a particular Club, shall not undermine the validity of the committee as appointed or its decision.
- 5.6.5 If an individual appointed to the Club Code Hearings Committee is conflicted in relation to the parties to or the subject matter of the Report, that individual shall notify the Club Executive Committee of the conflict and shall be removed from the Club Code Hearings Committee.

- 5.6.6 If an individual is removed from the Club Code Hearings Committee, the Executive Committee shall appoint a different individual to the Club Code Hearings Committee on a temporary or permanent basis.
